The Rev. Albert M. Gordon, assistant professor of Economics, and beloved member of the faculty died suddenly, Friday morning, Dec. 16, at eight o'clock following a heart attack suffered earlier that morning. He was 40 years old.

Father Gordon was born at Saginaw, Mich., Feb. 19, 1909, and entered the Society of the Precious Blood at St. Mary's Preparatory Seminary, Burkettsville, Ohio, in 1924. He studied here from 1925 to 1929, and was ordained priest of the Society at St. Charles Seminary, Cartbagena, Ohio, May 12,

At the university, last spring, Father Gordon had nearly completed the requirements for the Ph.D. degree. His doctoral thesis had been prepared, and he had recently been arranging publishing details of his dissertation.

The heart attack which ended his The heart attack which ended his life came unexpectedly. Last spring, Father Gordon suffered a severe attack, but had recovered sufficiently to meet his classes last fall and to serve as moderator of the Commerce Club. Born at Ft. Wayne, Henry came to Collegeville in Sept. 1910 and was a student here until the spring of 1913. Soon afterward he took employment with the Pennsylvania Railroad and remained with them until his death, except for a period of two years in the armed forces in World War I. He was successively engineer on the Grand Rapids, St. Louis and Columbus, and Ft. Wayne divisions, and for many years was road foreman of engineers.

He was the moving spirit behind the exerciaction of the Ft. Wayne foreman of engineers.

He was the moving spirit behind the organization of the Ft. Wayne Chapter, and took a lively interest in all its activities. In 1946 he was elected 1st Vice President of the Alumni Association, and in the following year was chosen President. As leader of the alumni, he addressed the graduates on Commencement Day, 1948.

The Very Rev. Alfred Zanolar, president of St. Joseph's, represented the College at the Funeral Mass on Dec. 27.

Who Will Say "Yes"?

According to records, within the past six weeks at least 15 St. Joe men have flatly refused to lead a particular group, or accept a responsibility to achieve an objective easily within the level of realization.

At least four other men, elected or appointed to positions of leadership either by the students themselves or by faculty counsellors, resigned their positions when the first lines of resistence to their leadership were encountered. They folded under the first pressure.

The same records show that this "folding" has been accomplished by much criticism of a very cynical sort, manifesting that both leaders and led are or are fast becoming the victims of a defeatist attitude which, if unchecked, always ends in DEFEAT itself.

This is clearly an anomaly!

Youth, young men, are usually the first to lay claim to clear-sightedness, and idealism, and this not only in theory, but in external behavior. Nietzsche speaks of youth as those "who form the first generation of fighters and dragon-slayers." It is a young man's mission "to shake to their foundations the present corruptions of wealth and culture, and erect love vision in place of a rococo mass of selfishness and egoism."

We-this campus-needs both ideals and men to bear ideals. It's high time we junk our individual, cheap attempts at pseudo-realism, which is just another term for narrow, shortsighted individual megalomania.

There's a TEAM fighting its way around the country. Don't criticize it! Cheer for it!

There's a Student Council elected to represent you. Don't tear it down! Make it represent you. This means that you must be POSITIVE in making your plans and needs known.

There's a TRIDUUM in honor of St. Joseph for accreditation. Don't look for the two reasons why you just can't make it. Find the 50 good reasons for making it.

There's a Lake County Club Dance, a Regional Congress of NFCCS, a line-up of speakers and entertainers for STUDENT ASSEMBLIES. Again, any mica-brain will be able to gather from his own limited ego the two or three negative reasons why these things are no good, and are to be boycotted.

It takes a man of values, a man of ideals, to see the little good in each which goes to make the GREAT GOOD of all. He is the man who says "YES" to all, and does all for each according to his abilities. (Reprinted from STUFF)

His "Last Class"

Father Albert Gordon received many accolades during his life. He was known and respected as a fine teacher, and was loved and admired as a man with a keen sense of humor and a vibrant personality. He had received degrees which marked him as a man of knowledge, and he possessed wisdom to go with that knowledge.

On the day of Father Gordon's death, of course, his classes did not convenc. However, one of his classes did meet. The group of students that he would have taught at ten o'clock, that morning, were all together at the regular hour. They spent that time in the chapel, reciting the Rosary for the

Motor City Pastor Pledges Cooperation

One of St. Joseph's all-around athletes in the early 20s is a letterman now at St. Boniface's parish, Detroit. Father Herbert Weier, '24, who had too many letters to count on his fingers, is still spelling SUCCESS with the same initiative, drive and perseverance that he showed as captain of the Cardinal and Purple teams.

The busy St. Boniface pastor, laden with a schedule of retreats in addition to his pastoral duties, took time out recently to write to a member of St. Joseph's faculty and in referring to organizing the alumni in the Motor City area, promises: "Let me know how things are developing and I will help you all I can." On our team he is still "Captain Flossie."

Peters, Krodel Give Duquesne 51-40 Scare

Art Cosgrove's St. Joe Pumas gave Duquesne University, one of the top teams in the country, a run for its money Friday, Jan. 13, before bowing, 51-40. It 11th victory without a defeat for the highly-touted Dukes, and the Pumas' sixth defeat in 11 starts.

St. Joseph's showed no fear whatever of the No. 8 team in the nation and displayed some of the best floor work they've shown the local fans for some time. The score was 30-18 at halftime, but it might have been closer than that, had the Pumas hit a better percentage of good close-in shots. Peters, Krodel Shine

George Peters and Bill Krodel played brilliant ball. Peters' masterful ball handling and driving play kept the Dukes from breaking away in the first half. Krodel did a commendable job of guarding the Duquesne star, Charlie Fenimore Cooper. "Coop," touted by the Dukes for All-American honors this year, had to fight all the way to scrape 13 points. Beshining on defense, Krodel bucketed 11 points for himself.

game really was, Duquesne didn't reach into the bag for a substitute until the final three minutes of the contest. St. Joe outscored the Dukes 22-21 in the second half. If it hadn't been for red-head Ed Dahler, 6-foot 7-inch forward, who dipped in 20 disastrous points, the Pumas might have pulled the biggest upset in the nation.

Jack Dwyer dumped in eight points and played an aggressive game, as did Jack Wilz who managed to hang in six counters. Ray Patterson rounded off the scoring for St. Joe with two points.

Bees Get Singed Just to show how close the ball In Midlands Tilt Loras (73) With Fast Pumas

A smooth-working and hard-fighting St. Joseph's College five singed the wings of the high-flying St. Ambrose Bees, defending Midlands champ, Monday, Jan. 16, and sent the visitors home on the short end of a 57-47 count. The Puma netters had to overcome an early 10-3 lead at the hands of the Davenport crew, mainly through deadly accuracy at the free throw lane by lanky Bill Krodel, and forged ahead at the half, 21-17.

Paced by the powerful play of their outstanding center, husky Jack Donnelly, the Ambrosians again went into the lead early in the second stanza, but could not hold an upper hand at any time as the battle see-sawed with the lead changing hands frequently. With a return to form that resembles his play of previous seasons, co-Capt. Ray Patterson made some high-priced points from the outer court. The Pumas were battling all the way and it was the teamwork they displayed in the second period, with payoff in scoring by Bill Krodel, George Peters and Ray Patterson, that stunned the visitors. Ball State Falls In Close Battle

In the most hectic battle on the home court this season the St. Joseph's Pumas staged their second garrison finish in two weeks, this time to overcome the Ball State Teachers here, Saturday night, 47-45. It took a pair of Jacks' scoring to spill the flashy Cardinals, Jack Dwyer calmly tying the score at 45-all with a brace of free throws, after which big Jack Wilz came through with a tip-in when only 55 seconds remained in the game. The victory was one of the sweetest of the tough Pumas card; they were paced all the way by the visitors, except a few moments after the second stanza opened when a rush put them ahead for a brief spell.

The Teachers, with Jack Sexton and Floyd Reed hitting on flashy cut-in-shots, were dominating the play during much of the second half, and led 45-38 when the Cosgrovemen cut loose with fireworks, ignited by Peters and Patterson.

with fireworks, ignited by Peters and Patterson.

Failure of the St. Joseph netters at the charity stripe cost them chances of taking the lead at any time during the bitterly fought first period in which the visitors held a slight 21-19 edge.

The Pumas' rally at the opening of the second period was shortlived, and the frenzied fans' hearts sank until the final minute when the home five unleashed a whirlwind attack that eked out victory. The game also marked the first time the St. Joseph five has conquered the Teachers in the three basketball clashes between the two schools. Coach Stealy rushed 11 players back and forth in the fray, while Coach Cosgrove staked hopes of victory on seven veterans, with the shifty Bob Horky doing yeoman service in a heavy relief role. Co-Capt. Ray Patterson topped the Puma scoring with seven goals.

Cosgrovemen Split On Eastern Trip

St. Joseph's split games on its recent Eastern trip, losing to Rider College at Trenton, N.J., 54-45, but edging the New York Athletic Club, 66-65 in New York.

The Pumas played one of their best games in defeating New York which carried All-Americans Plunkett and George Leddy. Plun-Plunkett and George Leddy. Plunkett formerly played with St. John's of Brooklyn, and Leddy with Georgetown. Ray Patterson pumped in the field goal that insured victory. George Peters was again high man with 24 points. He also hit 15 against Rider. Patterson counted 13 against the New Jersey club.

Rider led St. Joe 15-8 at the first quarter and 28-25 at half-time. The Pumas managed to stay within four points distance, 41-37, with 10 minutes to go, but the Trenton five poured it on in the last minutes to win going away.

Valpo Buries

St. Joseph, 64-37

Valparaiso University's fastbreaking Crusaders buried St. Joseph's under an avalanche of tiprebounds, and long shots, Wednesday, Jan. 11, in the field house to trounce the Pumas, 64-37. Jim Ove of Valpo led scorers with 24 points; George Peters was high for St. Joe with 14.

high for St. Joe with 14.

The largest home crowd of the year, swelled into overflowing by a whooping delegation from Valpo, watched the spirited Crusaders race to an early 5-0 lead. The Pumas, paced by Peters who notched eight counters of his team's first 11, went ahead at the quarter mark, but from then on, Valparaiso couldn't be held.

Valparaiso couldn't be held.

Employing their blazing fastbreak and complete control of the backboards, Valpo racked up a 31-21 halftime margin and steadily poured fresh men into the second half fray to make it a rout. St. Joe seemed stunned by the constant roar from enemy fans and the incessant attack of their opponents. They could muster only three baskets in the entire second half, Peters being bottled up and unable to hit while in the clear.

The defeat increased Valparaiso's all-time margin over St. Joe to 16 wins against 10 losses. It was the Pumas fifth defeat of what looks like a long, hard winter.

George seems to have a new version of Jim's trick of drawing fouls on the opposition in the old non-out-of-bounds gym court; he can come up with a free-literary matter and form, but a reasonable degree of neatness in general format and of precision in typing is expected.
